Case No. 82-WPA-25

USDOJ
ALJ LAW LIBRARY

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On March 31, 1982, the complainant, Salvatore Scimeca & Sons, Inc., filed a request for a hearing from a determination by an acting regional administrator of the United States Department of Labor, Employment Standards Administration. On February 17, 1982, the acting regional administrator denied the complainant's request for a permanent variance from the Department of Labor's housing regulations. 20 C.F.R. Part 654.

On June 28, 1983, the acting regional administrator filed a motion to dismiss stating that the condition leading to a denial of the complainant's request for a variance has been abated and that the complainant is now in compliance with 20 C.F.R. 654.407(c). Based on this representation, there is no further need for a hearing in this matter and this proceeding is hereby DISMISSED.

Dear Judge Thomas:

Please be advised that in the matter of Salvatore Scimeca (82-WPA-25) the condition leading to a denial of Mr. Scimeca's request for a variance has been abated and Mr. Scimeca is now in conformance with 20 CFR 654.407(c).

Since the matter has now been resolved we would suggest that the proposed hearing between the Department and Scimeca be cancelled.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "T. Hill", written over the typed name.

THOMAS E. HILL
Acting Regional Administrator
